Exclusive Use Weddings: what's included

Many weddings here are on an 'exclusive use basis and it is useful to summarise for you what that includes;

This insure that your party have a really relaxing day and are free to enjoy Soulton; the grounds, lawns, freedom and plenty of space. This means that we are closed to all other visitors to Soulton on the days that you are with us, so that we can devote all our attention to your party alone, with no diversions. The day will move at the pace dictated by your party and if you want to take a little longer on some things, that will be quite alright as we are all there to look after you.

The Venue and Exclusive use fee include the following:-

Exclusion of other visitors, we are closed to other visitors on the days that you are with us with no exceptions.

Soulton Hall and Soulton Court with their respective lawns, gardens and large car parking area, farmland with crops (good for photography), woodland are all here for you to enjoy.

We include the provision of chairs suitable for a wedding, tables for the Wedding breakfast, organised as you wish on long tables or round tables, or a mixture of both. Required number of chairs, linen for tables, napkins (choice of white, burgundy or gold) wine and water glasses, cutlery, cake table and cake knife, and a dedicated brigade of chefs, kitchen staff, waiting staff, bar staff. Glasses for the fully stocked bar, bar facilities, and large Californian-style gas BBQ for evening food, covered area for evening food, garden tables and chairs for guests and evening food outside if required. Soulton Court has three large entertaining rooms, giving access to a large terraced area, and a dedicated timbered Ceremony room dating from early the 1500s. There are plenty of toilets, large disabled toilet and baby changing area, and the ground floor is fully accessible for those with mobility needs with ramps discreetly placed to give full access to the ground floor of Soulton Court and large lawned area and there is an enormous log burning stove in Soulton Court which is very efficient.

By prior agreement you may also have your contractor erect a marquee, in consultation with us, within the grounds.

We offer a genuinely very inclusive service, meaning that our prices cover all that you are likely to want to use during the day to look after your celebrations. You do not have the extra concern and trouble of making extra contracts and fees for chairs and tables, napkins, table clothes and so on. At the same time you are free to use your own florists, band, DJ, and other support to make the day go just as you want.
